WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is proud to recognize the Houston Police Department for achieving accreditation; and

WHEREAS, The largest police department in the world, the Houston Police Department became the fifth law enforcement agency in the State of Texas and the 78th in the world to be accredited in the Law Enforcement Accreditation Program on July 24, 1988; and

WHEREAS, Organized in 1979 through the combined efforts of four major law enforcement membership associations, the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Incorporated, was formed to develop a set of law enforcement standards and establish and administer an accreditation process by which law enforcement agencies at the state and local levels can demonstrate voluntarily that they meet professional criteria; and

WHEREAS, These four major law enforcement membership associations, whose members direct approximately 80 percent of the law enforcement community in the United States, are the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives, the National Sheriffs' Association, and the Police Executive Research Forum; and

WHEREAS, The principal objectives of the accreditation process are: to increase law enforcement agency capabilities to prevent and control crime, apprehend offenders, and recover stolen property; to increase agency effectiveness and efficiency in the delivery of law enforcement services; to increase cooperation and coordination with other law enforcement agencies and with other agencies in the criminal justice system; and to increase citizen and employee confidence in the goals, objectives, policies, and practices of the agency; and

WHEREAS, Among the major benefits of this accreditation program are: to provide a means of independent evaluation of agency operations, to provide a basis to correct deficiencies before they become public problems, to increase the confidence of individual officers and the general public in the effectiveness, efficiency, and responsiveness of the agency, and, with adherence to the standards developed, to reduce the likelihood of liability suits; and

WHEREAS, There are more than 900 standards, covering more than 48 topic areas concerning every aspect of law enforcement organization, management, administration, operations, and technical and support services; and

WHEREAS, The Houston Police Department, under the distinguished leadership of Lee P. Brown, Chief of Police, and the Accreditation Manager, Captain Mark L. Curran, has worked many long, hard hours to complete the accreditation that will lead to more efficiency and greater protection and other benefits for the citizens of Houston; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 71st Legislature, hereby congratulate the Houston Police Department on this splendid achievement; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for the Houston Police Department as an expression of deep appreciation and high esteem from the Texas Senate.

The resolution was read and was adopted viva voce vote.

Strike Section 1 in its entirety, and insert the following:

SECTION 1. The Professional Services Procurement Act (Article 664-4, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) is amended by amending Section 3 and adding Section 3A to read as follows:

Sec. 3. No state agency, political subdivision, county, municipality, district, authority or publicly-owned utility of the State of Texas shall make any contract for, or engage the professional services of, any licensed physician, optometrist, surgeon, or ~~or [architect]~~ certified public accountant ~~[or registered engineer]~~, or any group or association thereof, selected on the basis of competitive bids submitted for such contract or for such services to be performed, but shall select and award such contracts and engage such services on the basis of demonstrated competence and qualifications for the type of professional services to be performed and at fair and reasonable prices, as long as professional fees are consistent with and not higher than the published recommended practices and fees of the various applicable professional associations and do not exceed the maximum provided by any state law.

Sec. 3A. (a) In the procurement of architectural or engineering services by an entity described by Section 3 of this Act, the entity shall negotiate a contract for the services:

(1) on the basis of the demonstrated competence and qualifications of the person, including any firm, who is to provide the services; and

(2) at a fair and reasonable price.

(b) The entity shall announce its intention to contract for architectural or engineering services by:

(1) publishing in a newspaper of general circulation in the entity a notice regarding the proposed contract; and

(2) sending the notice to each person who in writing has requested the notice.

(c) The notice must contain a statement of:

(1) the entity's intent to make a contract;

(2) the criteria by which persons desiring to perform the services will be evaluated;

(3) the deadline for submitting required information to the entity;

and

(4) the name, address, and telephone number of the person or office with which the information must be submitted and from which additional information regarding the contract may be obtained.

(d) The entity shall require persons interested in providing the services to submit to the entity a statement of the person's qualifications and of performance information. The entity shall evaluate the statements submitted in regard to the proposed contract. In addition, the entity shall evaluate statements that were previously filed with the entity and that indicate a desire of the person submitting the statement to be considered for future contracts for architectural or engineering services.

(e) After evaluating the statements, the entity shall determine the three most highly qualified persons according to the published criteria and taking into account the value, scope, complexity, and professional nature of the services. The entity shall discuss with those persons the advantages and disadvantages of various approaches to the performance of the services. After the discussions, the entity shall attempt to negotiate a contract with the most highly qualified person.

(f) If the entity is unable to negotiate a satisfactory contract with the most highly qualified person, the entity shall formally end negotiations with that person and begin negotiations with the second most highly qualified person. If the entity is unable to negotiate a satisfactory contract with the second most highly qualified person, the entity shall formally end the negotiations with that person and begin negotiations with the third most highly qualified person.

(g) An entity that fails to negotiate a contract with the three selected persons shall select another three qualified persons and continue the negotiations with those persons in the same manner as with the previously selected persons.

(h) Negotiations shall be undertaken in accordance with this section until a contract is made.

In Memory*of*Wardlow William Lane

Senator Haley offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 578)

WHEREAS, The State of Texas lost one of its most revered and esteemed citizens when Wardlow William Lane of Center died February 8, 1988, at the age of 86; and

WHEREAS, This admired gentleman's long, productive career spanned more than 50 years; during that time he served as County Attorney of Shelby County, District Attorney of the 123rd District, State Senator, and District Judge; and

WHEREAS, The people of the State of Texas are extremely fortunate to have had the dedicated services of such an outstanding public servant; and

WHEREAS, A graduate of The University of Texas School of Law, he returned to Center to start his law practice in 1929; he was soon elected to the office of County Attorney and, then, District Attorney in 1934; and

WHEREAS, Senator Lane was admired for his honesty and integrity and was known throughout the State of Texas as one of the most feared and respected prosecutors; and

WHEREAS, After retiring from the District Attorney's office, he was elected to the Texas Senate in 1942 where he served for 20 years representing the counties of Shelby, Panola, Gregg, Harrison, and Rusk; and

WHEREAS, For future generations his record will continue to speak as a lawmaker whose judgment was based on sound economy and common sense for all citizens; and

WHEREAS, In 1968 he was appointed by the Governor of Texas to fill a vacancy in the office of District Judge of the 123rd Judicial District Court, comprising Panola and Shelby counties; and

WHEREAS, Although he retired from the bench in 1975, he continued to serve throughout the State of Texas, trying primarily criminal cases in an effort to alleviate the backlog of cases on crowded metropolitan dockets; and

WHEREAS, This accomplished man will be remembered as a colorful storyteller, a man gifted with a keen sense of humor, and an individual possessing the ability to comprehend the inner feelings of others; and

WHEREAS, This native son was in the true East Texas sense a legend in his time, a feared prosecutor, dedicated lawmaker, distinguished jurist, and, above all, a God-fearing honest man; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 71st Legislature, hereby honor the memory of Wardlow William Lane and extend sympathy to the members of his family; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for Rachel Anderson, Dr. L. S. Oates, and his loving family as a token of deepest respect and appreciation from the Texas Senate, and that when the Senate adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Wardlow William Lane.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Brooks and by unanimous consent, the names of the Lieutenant Governor and Senators were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

On motion of Senator Haley and by unanimous consent, the resolution was considered immediately and was adopted by a rising vote of the Senate.
